

Discipline Policy

The policy of Kids Kingdom Childcare is to guide children in a positive way by letting them know they are accepted, setting limits, and giving respect. A young child needs to feel totally and unconditionally accepted, setting limits, and giving respect. They need to know that their teacher loves them and God loves them. Limits are necessary to help them learn self-control. The limits help us to live and work safely in a world with others. Teachers set these limits the first week of school and through consistency the children learn them. Reasonable limits give children an opportunity to choose their behavior. All children need to know they are important, respected, and loved. Discipline within the center's setting will seek to:

- Reinforce the positive behaviors of the child,
- Listen carefully to the child as they express their feelings,
- Model appropriate Christ-like behaviors (actions, words),
- Provide choices with realistic limits, and
- Provide logical, natural consequences (as described below)
